LINCOLN COLLEGE TO HAVE BIG FUND

Million-Dollar Endowment Plan Is Announced at Birthday Celebration.

NOTABLES AT EXERCISES

By the Associated Press CUMBERLAND GAP, Tenn., February 12 .- Coincident with the anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln, celebrated at the Lincoln Memorial University here today, a movement was inaugurated for a million-dollar endow ment for the institution.

Dr. John Wesley Hill of New York and Washington, chancellor of the institution, this morning announced that the ambition of the officials of the university was to create such a financial bulwark for this college, "in many respects the most remarkable in the world." It is established here for affording industrial, agricultural, commercial and literary and scientific educational advantages for boys and girls of the mountain sections of upper east Tenmountain sections of upper east Tennessee, southwest Virginia and south-east Kentucky. Many responses from men widely known nationally gave the endowment a substantial neucleus, and it is anticipated that the $1,000,000 will raised.

Mr. McClure Makes Prediction.

Today's ceremonies, participated in by many notables, ended the three-day celebration at the university. An ad- was formally opened yesterday with dress this morning attracting particu- appropriate exercises. lar attention and comment was that of S. S. McClure of New York, who asserted that the outcome of the European war depends upon the success of the U-boat or the course taken by Russia.

"If the U-boat is a success Germany would win the war," he declared, "but Germany is beginning to doubt the practicability of the undersea craft. The other possibility is that Russia will make a separate peace. In case the U-boat is a failure and Russia adheres to the allies Germany is lost."

Prayer for Greater America.

The deep undertone of the celebration vesterday was a prayer for a greater boys and girls at the university, of the boys and girls at the university, of the same race, type and same sincerity of endeavor as Lincoln. Two score sena-tors and representatives delivered five-minute tributes modeled after the brevity of Lincoln's Gettysburg adbrevity of Lincoln's Gettysburg address.

Joe Chapple said that when he told President Wilson his problems were like those of Lincoln's, the President's eyes softened and he replied: "Lincoln's example is ever before me." Then the speaker exclaimed: "Have we aught to fear in this crisis when the spirit of Lincoln hangs over the nation like a guardian angle?"

Chancellor Hill, presiding at the morning session, said the best tribute to Lincoln is loyalty to his successor.

Senator Owen of Oklahoma and President Marcus H. Marks of the borough of Manhattan also spoke.

R. L. Kincaid, representing the students, spoke on "Lincoln's Memorial of the Future."

Norman C. Raff presided at the afternoon session. Newton W. Gilbert, former vice governor of the Philippines, told of "The Spirit of Lincoln in the Philippines."

Chief speakers at the night session were Senator Watson of Indiana, Henry S. Graves, United States Senator Norris, Representative Meeker, Caleb Powers, Representative Gallagher and Leslie M.

Senator Owens' Address.

Senator Owens said in part: "In his mighty prayer lifted to high heaven on the field of Gettysburg, November 19, 1863, he (Lincoln) voiced forever the aspiration of his great heart, and spoke the hope of all democracies when he paid tribute to those who laid down their lives to maintain 'a new nation, conceived in liberty, and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal, when he prayed that those who had given their lives in this cause 'shall not have died in vain—that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom—and that government of the people, by the people, for the people, snall not perish from the earth.

ple, for the people, snall not perish from the earth."

"Patriotic Americans of all parties have, in recent years, been struggling to make effective this prayer by providing the mechanism through which the intelligence and patriotism of the majority of the people might freely govern the nation.

"The great task remaining before us, of stable, popular government, is being worked out by the American people through the initiative and referendum and recall, the preferential ballot, the publicity pamphlet, a mechanism which is destined to enthrone the sovereignty of majorities and to establish forever a wise and beneficial government which was in Lincoln's heart when he prayed that travernment by the reconle, should was in Lincoln's heart when he prayer that 'government by the people' should not perish from the earth."

Has First Legal Celebration.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., February 12 .-Kentucky for the first time in its history is legally celebrating the birthday of Abraham Lincoln today. In various ways the memory of the emancipater is being honored by residents of the state in which he was born. The last session of the general assambly of Kentucky made Lincoln's birthday a legal holiday. Throughout the commonwealth the schools and state institutions are closed in honor of the occasion. In the majority of the churches of Louisville and other cities preachers and educators delivered addresses on the life and character of Lincoln.

Abraham Lincoln was portrayed at a memorial service at his birthplace at Hodgenville yesterday afternoon by Bishop Samuel Fallows and Dr. Jenkin Lloyd Lones of Chicago as the great Lloyd Jones of Chicago as the great pacificator and militant leader of arpacificator and militant leader of armies. The memorial services were attended by a crowd of western tourists aboard a special train from Chicago en route to the twentieth anniversary of the founding of Abraham Lincoln Memorial University at Cumberland Gap. The party arrived at the Lincoln birthplace from Chicago yesterday afternoon. Last night memorial services in honor of the great emancipator were held in four Louisville churches. At each church three of the western visitors delivered an address.

Ready to Follow Example.

In the ceremony at Hodgenville, Dr. Jones declared that Lincoln, only when all other means failed, permitted war to come. Bishop Fallows said the nation today stood ready to follow Lincoln's example and become a world force for humanity, just as the civil war was fought to free the slaves. Others who spoke at Hodgenville and Louisville were Henry B. Rathbone, Elmer E. Williams, Dr. E. Robb Zarring, Clifford E. Roe, Max Pam, Dr. Austin Hunter, the Rev. William B. Millard, Dr. John T. Brushingham and Alonzo Wilson, all of Chicago. One car of the tourists included Mayor William Hale Thompson, Chicago, and the heads of departments of the Chicago city administration. force for humanity, just as the civil

Three Unpublished Letters.

FARCO, N. D., February 12.-What are claimed here to be three heretofore unpublished letters written by Abraham Lincoln are printed today, having been made public by Rev. R. A. Beard, CONTINUED COLD SPELL pastor of the First Congregational Church of this city, to whom photo graphic copies were presented by W. K. Bixby of St. Louis. Dr. Beard announced the existence of the letters in connection with a Lincoln memorial service yesterday at his church.

One of the letters dated at the Exceutive Mansion in Washington, April 30, 1864, is addressed to "Lieut. Gen.

Grant."

"Not expecting to see you again before the spring campaign opens," Lincoln writes Grant, "I wish to express in this way my entire satisfaction with what you have done up to this time, so far as I understand it."

The other two letters were dated Washington, December 24, 1848, during the time Lincoln was a member of Congress. In one of them, to his father, Lincoln says:

Clear, cold weather for the next few days, as promised by the weather bureau, makes certain the continuance of skating on the tidal basin and out at the Zoo. Yesterday hundreds took advantage of the ice and skated to their hearts' content.

ston, he writes:
"Your request for $50 I do not think it best to comply with now."

Advising Johnston to go to work,
Lincoln promises him $1 "for every dollar you will, between this and the first day of May, get for your labor."
